RDC operates a Two Way Radio Network that is used by part 90 eligible end users to provide two way radio voice dispatch communications between the customers mobile fleet and their office dispatch operations. The system does not connect to the Public Switch Telephone Network and as such does not interface with other non RDC carriers to provide carrier or interconnect service.

As the system does not interconnect, no interconnect call records, call detail or specific CPNI data is collected or stored.

The following is a list of the reviewed procedures to ensure that RDC Communications is in compliance with the FCC rules and regulations in regard to the collection of, store, use and disclosure of Customer Proprietary Network Information (CPNI) per 47CFR 64.2001.

64.2005 Use of customer proprietary network information without customer approval.

- (a) RDC does not collect, use, disclose or permit access to CPNI for the purpose of providing or marketing service offerings. RDC operates no marketing plan or program that uses CPNI information.
- (b) RDC does not collect, use, disclose or permit access to CPNI for the purpose of providing or marketing service offerings. RDC or any affiliates to operate a marketing plan or program that uses CPNI information.
- (c) RDC complies with this section as we have discontinued our interconnected service and do not use CPNI to provide any service, survey, or optional service offerings.
- (d) RDC has not disclosed or permitted the use of any CPNI to protect the rights or property of the carrier.

64.2007 Approval required for use of CPNI

- (a) RDC does not use or collect CPNI for any marketing or programs that require permission from the customer so no official approval process is used.

64.2008 Notice required for use of CPNI

(a) RDC does not use or collect CPNI for any marketing or programs that require notification to the customer so no official approval process is used.

64.2009 Safeguards required for use of CPNI

(a) as no CPNI data is stored or collected RDC employees do not have access to records that require a safeguard policy.

Respectfully,
